Lodge property, and keeping an attendance record of each Lodge Executive Committee Meeting. They shall give due notice to delinquent members of the LEC. They shall be responsible for running check-in at events, updating Lodge membership records, and overseeing the Lodge Committees assigned to them in Appendix A. The Lodge Executive Committee may assign them special duties.

Appointed Committee Chair Positions:

Ceremonies Committee Chair

The Ceremonies Committee Chair oversees the committee members and works with the Ceremonies Committee Adviser and Elangomat Committee. Within the Ceremonies Committee there are groups of ceremony teams, the pre-Ordeal, Ordeal, Brotherhood, and Color Guard teams. The Chair works directly with the team leads to ensure regular practices and feedback on the quality of the ceremony. The Chair also works to prepare people and materials for both council and Lodge events where the committee may play a role, i.e. Call-out Ceremonies, Spring and Fall Mawenemen, and Winter Brotherhood.

Elangomat Committee Chair

The Elangomat Committee Chair oversees the committee members and works with the Elangomat Committee Adviser and the Ceremonies Committee. The Elangomat Committee works to ensure they are leading candidates through their Ordeal. Along with informing new members about upcoming events, and assisting them on their journey towards Brotherhood. The Nimat guides arrowmen on their journey towards Brotherhood.

Service Committee Chair

The Service Committee Chair works with Gamehaven Council to find suitable service projects for the Lodge to undertake. The Service Committee Chair oversees their Committee, and works with the Service Adviser, and Vice Chief of Program to plan and execute service projects at Mawenemens, Lumberjack Days, and other service work days. The Service Committee Chair maintains records of past service projects.

Activities Committee Chair

The Activities Committee Chair is responsible for overseeing the Activities Committee and working with the Activities Committee Adviser. The Chair will work with the committee to plan, organize, run the activities at Lodge functions, including but not limited to the following: Summer Activation Events, Blue Ox Games, Spring and Fall Mawenemen, Winterfest, and other functions as requested by the Vice-Chief of Program.

Unit Visitations Committee Chair

The Unit Visitations Committee Chair is responsible for overseeing the Unit Visitations Committee while working with the Unit Visitations Committee Adviser and Vice-Chief of Unit Relations. The Unit Visitations Chair and committee is responsible for preparing for the unit visitation season, including: putting together/updating the visitation/election resources, both for visitation/election sets, and Lodgemaster emails. The Chair is also responsible for training the Unit Visitation Committee under the guidance of the Adviser and Vice-Chief of Unit Relations and organizing the visitations and elections with the units in Gamehaven Council.

Unit Representative Committee Chair

The Unit Representative Committee Chair is responsible for overseeing and working with the Unit Representative Committee, Unit Representative Adviser, and Vice-Chief of Unit Relations. The Chair is responsible for keeping track of Unit's and their OA Reps, and OA Rep Advisers. The Chair should maintain monthly communication with OA Reps, making sure they have information about upcoming Lodge events, and encouraging them to attend LEC meetings, or send an Arrowman in their stead. The Chair should work with the OA Rep to ensure they are scheduling a service project with their unit and- if desired- inviting the Lodge to come and assist.

Communications Committee Chair

The Communications Committee Chair shall be responsible for overseeing the Communications Committee while working with the Communications Committee Adviser and Vice-Chief of Administration. The Chair is responsible for getting publications out about events, and assisting with any form of communication that is requested by the Vice-Chief of Administration, including but not limited to: emails, phone calls, letters, etc.

The Trading Post Committee Chair is also responsible for the assembly, operating, and dismantling of the Trading Post at events as requested by the Trading Post Adviser and Vice-Chief of Administration, along with keeping accurate inventory of the Trading Post merchandise.

Vigil Committee Chair

The Vigil Committee Chair is responsible for coordinating the induction of new Vigil members. This includes leading the nomination and selection process, submitting the Vigil Honor applications, planning the induction event, and communicating information to current Vigil members. They work closely with the Vigil Committee Adviser to ensure everything is properly prepared for the induction. Terms are disjoint from the normal election cycle and are synced to the yearly Vigil induction cycle. The youth members of the Vigil Committee will select their own Chair for the Vigil induction cycle.

Lodge Committee Members:

Lodge Committee Members shall be responsible for carrying out their duties as assigned by their specific Committee Chair.

APPENDIX C: REORGANIZATION INTO CHAPTERS

In the event that the Blue Ox Lodge reaches a membership of numbers such that it is deemed that the Lodge is too big for the current structure and setup of the Lodge, the Lodge LEC may choose to implement Chapters, as detailed below. This appendix shall then, upon approval by the Lodge Executive Committee, be incorporated into the body of the Lodge By-Laws as Article XV: Chapters.

Section 1. Chapter Organization. The Lodge shall be divided into smaller territories called chapters. Chapters shall be in which each district lies in the council. At this time there would be three chapters. Each chapter shall be responsible to the Lodge Executive Committee.

Section 2. Chapter Purpose. Such chapters shall have for their purpose to increase involvement in the Order, create further and better communication with the OA Troop/ Team Representatives, provide service to the communities of the chapter, conduct Order of the Arrow Unit Elections, and promote scout camping.

Section 3. Chapter Positions. The elected and voting officers of each chapter shall be the Chapter Chief. Chapter officers shall be elected by the chapter's general youth membership, following the Lodge Officer elections. Chapter Officers shall be installed at the annual Spring Mawenemen and take office on said Spring Mawenemen and installed alongside the incoming Lodge Chief. These officers must be under the age of 21 for their entire term of office.

Section 4. Chapter representation on the Lodge Executive Committee. Each chapter shall be represented by one voting member for the LEC, their respective Chapter Chief or their designee.

Section 5. Chapter Vice-Chiefs. It is recommended that each chapter also elect a Chapter Vice Chief to serve as the chapter representative in the Chapter Chief's absence.

Chairmen of committees shall be appointed by the Chapter Chief with the recommendation and approval of the Chapter Committee and Chapter Adviser

Section 6. Chapter Committees. The Chapter Chief and Chapter Adviser can create chairs as deemed necessary. Chapter Chairmen shall have a vote on the Chapter Committee.

Section 7. Chapter Advisers. Chapter Advisers shall be appointed by the Lodge Adviser with approval of their District Executive and Staff Adviser.

Section 8. Chapter Meetings. The Chapter Committee shall hold at least two meetings per year. General Chapter meetings should be scheduled during the spring and fall events. All youth members of the chapter in attendance are eligible for voting. (GOA 8)

Section 9. Chapter Office Vacancy. In the event that a chapter officer resigns or is removed during their term, the Chapter Chief shall have the authority to appoint the replacement to resume this office for the remainder of the term as well as any other vacated positions in the act of replacement, these appointments must be approved by the CC, Chapter Adviser, and the District Executive. If the Chapter Chief vacates office, the Vice Chief shall become the acting Chapter Chief for the remainder of the term and shall have all authority that comes under this position.

Section 10. Chapter Officer Position Descriptions. The Chapter Chiefs and Chapter Advisers shall consist within the LEC. Chapter Chiefs shall be responsible for the Order of the Arrow program at the chapter level, ensuring that each chapter in their area is running a quality program. They shall oversee the Order of the Arrow Troop Representative, and Cub Camp Promotion programs as the chapter level. The Lodge Executive Committee may assign them special duties.
